I don't know your religion but one day I heard you pray
For a world where everyone can work and children they can play
And though you never got your share of the fruits that you have won
For you sowed the seeds of equality in your daughters and your sons

D D7 G D

G C D Em C D G

They taunted you in Belfast and they tortured you in Spain
And in that Warsaw ghetto where they tied you up in chains
In Vietnam and in Chile where they came with tanks and guns
It's there you sowed the seeds of peace in your daughters and your sons

G C D Em C D G

And now your music's playing and the writing's on the wall
And all the dreams you painted can be seen by one and all
Now you've got them thinking and the future's just begun
For you sowed the seeds of freedom in your daughters and your sons
